Designer and developer with experience working on web projects for independent brands and clients in the US, Europe, and Latin America. I work in both design and development and tend to stay involved throughout the process, from defining the visual direction and interface to launch and ongoing maintenance. My experience includes e-commerce, brand websites, and digital products.

EXPERIENCE

Designer & Developer 2020 - Present

Independent

Independent design work since 2020, expanding into web design and development in 2023. My work includes brand identity, interfaces, e-commerce, deployment, and ongoing maintenance.

UI Designer 2025 - 2026

Design In DC · United States (remote)

Contract interface design for a Washington DC agency: web layouts and mockups for the agency's client projects.

SELECTED WORK

Tony Decay tonydecay.com · Illustrator storefront: identity, shop, and checkout
Visual identity and online store for illustrator Tony Decay. I handled the design and development, with integrated payments and a panel where the artist manages sales and shipments.

Digeart digeart.online · Music discovery platform: product design and development
Music discovery platform for listeners and producers. It brings together electronic music, mixes, and sampling material in a hand-curated catalog, and lets users create playlists. Designed, developed, and maintained independently.

Silverback Stripes silverbackstripes.com · E-commerce site: Shopify design and development
Shopify store for a martial arts apparel brand. Design and development of the homepage, product pages, and mobile navigation.

Superself.online superself.online · Independent record label: identity, website, and catalog
Site and brand for my electronic music label. A digital identity inspired by the aesthetics of the early internet, with generative visuals, a release catalog, and merchandise. Designed and developed end to end, in three languages.

Micaela Lucía micaelalucia.com · Photography portfolio: website design and development
Portfolio and archive for a photographer - full-width documentary photography, a minimal interface, and a grid that grows with her archive. Designed, built, and deployed.
