I design and build e-commerce sites and digital products, from the first layout to launch. Most of my work sits between design and development, so I tend to stay involved in the whole process. I've shipped stores and interfaces for clients in the US, Europe, and Latin America.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Web Developer & Designer

2023 - Present

Independent

Web design and development for independent brands and small teams, delivered end to end: interface, storefront, checkout, and the client's admin panel. Hosting, domains, email, and maintenance after launch.

UI Designer

2025 - 2026

Design In DC · United States (remote)

Contract interface design for a Washington DC agency. A year and a half of web layouts and mockups for the agency's client projects.

Freelance Graphic Designer

2020 - Present

Independent

Graphic design since 2020: brand identity, corporate print, and event flyers.

SELECTED WORK

Digeart digeart.online · Music discovery app: own project, design, build, and upkeep

A discovery app for underground electronic music that plays as you browse: a hand-curated catalog, queue, keyboard shortcuts, likes and playlists. Maintained since launch.

Tony Decay tonydecay.com · Print store: brand, store, and checkout

Print store for illustrator Tony Decay, built end to end: brand, shop, PayPal checkout, inventory, and an order panel the artist runs himself.

Silverback Stripes silverbackstripes.com · Shopify store: storefront and product pages

Shopify store for a combat-sports apparel brand: homepage, sections, navigation, and product pages.

Superself.online superself.online · Label I co-founded: brand, site, and shop

Site and brand for an electronic music label I co-founded - a playful wireframe interface, generative visuals, and a shop. Built end to end, in three languages.

Micaela Lucía micaelalucia.com · Photography portfolio and archive: design and build

Portfolio and archive for a photographer - full-width documentary photography, a minimal interface, and a grid that grows with her archive. Designed, built, and deployed.
